Access your farm's risk exposure and discover how your farm may benefit from using financial risk management tools when your realized income over feed cost margin is below target benchmark.

Learn more about the available financial risk management tools including CME Futures/Options, USDA/RMA Livestock Gross Margin Insurance, DFA Forward Pricing and the newest kid on the block – USDA/FSA Margin Protection Program.

Gain insights on how Ohio dairy farmer leadership is navigating through the challenges of manure nutrient management and water quality issues.
